

Spa & Wellness) mexicaribe)

K. Fabiola Amador Martell

Bussiness Coordinator
Spa & Wellness MexiCaribe

Fabiola has developed her skills as an International Relations professional with a focus on project management. She has previously worked as a project coordinator and administrative assistant.

Since her college days, she has maintained a keen interest in local and international events. Fabiola has being part of various research projects and events coordinated in Colima, Mexico, where she has assisted on content analysis reports, database design, the creation of public policies and organization of public festivals.

Fabiola holds a Bachelor of Arts in International Relations with a minor in South East Asia from the University of Colima (UdeC).

